ABOUT ME

Heralding from the Midwest USA, I've made my way down under to the great land of Australia. My background is diverse, with a wide range of experience in healthcare and the social services fields. I am excited to incorporate my rich work history into the tech field as a full-stack web developer. I am currently studying in the Fast-Track web development program at Coder Academy - Brisbane through February 2020 and excited and eager to learn all things code.
